

Donating to the B&G Club

Realtor Pina Nazario, an associate with Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage since 1998, presented a check for $1,000 to the Boys & Girls Club of Clifton this past month.

“It’s all about the kids and their futures,” she said. “The Club has been such a big part of our community for over 60 years. I feel that as members of the community, it’s up to us to ensure that organizations like the Boys & Girls Club of Clifton continue to provide a safe haven for our youth.”

Nazario, a 12 year resident of Clifton has been part of the Club’s family for years.

“Both my boys are members and I have seen first hand the positive effects that the Club and its programs have on these kids.”

Sons Julian, 15, and Peter, 12, have been Boys & Girls Clubs members for more than seven years.

Over the years, Nazario has contributed to the Club in several ways, from support of the Clubs Annual Golf event to sponsorships and donations, to volunteerism, but the Clubs Annual One Campaign really inspired her to help.

The Boys & Girls Club of Clifton implemented the “It Just Takes One” Campaign last year. According to Executive Director Robert Foster, “the response to the 2006 Campaign was overwhelming and has strengthened our belief that the campaign remains a successful fundraising vehicle for the Club.”

The theme of the Campaign involves the belief that one person can make a difference in the life of a child and one Boys & Girls Club can give hope to an entire neighborhood. It was the Club’s One Campaign that inspired Nazario to donate $100 of each sale to the Boys & Girls Club of Clifton.

“We have seen “One Campaign” increase visibility and awareness of the Club and our programs, inspire gifts from individuals, and help lay the groundwork for larger endowments and planned gifts,” said Foster, who urged others to join the fundraising campaign.

Pina Nazario of Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage presents a $1,000 check to Boys & Girls Club of Clifton Executive Director Robert Foster.